

Keri George BSN RN

Vice President of Clinical Affairs

George is a committed Clinical Research Nurse with 20 years' experience implementing and overseeing various clinical research projects.

George works with clinicians to study and publish relevant, evidence-based research to improve patient surgical outcomes.

She is adept at maintaining accuracy through astute observation and attention to detail.

